We do not participate in international nurse recruitment campaigns, as we only employ a small number of around 30 nurses at any given point, and have not had the need to hire agency or bank nurses for over two years.

By way of explanation, you may be interested to note that the Tavistock and Portman NHS Foundation Trust is not a hospital, it is a specialist mental health provider of outpatient and mainly psychological therapies. We do not provide any acute services or admitted patient care, have no A&E department, and do not provide any physical interventions.

The contact details you have requested are as follows:

1. Email and/or contact details for Jenny Goodridge, Interim Chief Nurse.
The Trust has recently appointed Clare Scott to the post of Chief Nursing Officer. Claire can be contacted via her PA rbass@tavi-port.nhs.uk
