Subject

Provision of MH Services to Prisons

Details of enquiry

I would like to ask the following questions under the Freedom of Information Act.

1. How many prisons do you provide mental health services to?
2. What is your total trained staff complement for all these prisons?
3. What is the average caseload for each member of staff?
4. What proportion of staff caseloads have a serious mental illness (SMI)?
5. What proportion of those with a SMI are on the CPA?
6. What problems do you face when administering the CPA in prison?

Response Sent

The Tavistock and Portman NHS Foundation Trust is a specialist mental health Trust which provides outpatient psychotherapy services only.

Trust staff do not provide direct mental health services to prisons in that we do not see or treat any inmates.

Your enquiry is therefore considered as not applicable to this Trust.
